

Anthony-Ivey Family

Sam Hill Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund

Background

The Sam Hill Jr. Memorial Scholarship was created during the planning of the 2008 Anthony-Ivey Family & Friends Reunion, which was held in Atlanta, GA. This brainchild of this scholarship was Sam Hill Jr. who recommended that the 2008 committee utilize remaining dollars at the close of the reunion to launch a scholarship fund for the betterment of the children in the family. Sam was known to many as the life and laughter of the family, and he loved everyone with all of his heart. He especially had a passion for young people and believed that every child should strive for higher education. As a testament to his legacy and love of family, the Sam Hill Jr. Memorial Scholarship is now an ongoing family tradition to be carried out for generations to come. Each young person in the A-I family who strives for higher education and/or or military service should always feel an abundance of love and support from the entire family as they endeavor to forge new educational pathways, build careers and ultimately follow their dreams. “Rev.” Sam would be very proud to see our young people moving forward while always keeping God first and family as their foundation.

Note: The first scholarships were disseminated in September 2011 (2011 H.S. graduates), and officially presented during the 2012 family reunion.
